

Airai Water Paradise Hotel Jan Newsletter

Happy New Year!

2010-2011 count down party made us get the feel of "We are world"

Starting from the joyful singing of local church, the mother of the 16 -members Korean family contributed the most touching Korean tune. The group from Taiwan showed us the aboriginal dancing and the tribal song.

At the first second of 2011, Hong Kong guests threw friends into the pool~ it ended up to be every one celebrated 2011 in AWP's swimming pool!

Let's welcome Delta~

After careful evaluation of hotels, Delta Airline crew finally decided to stay at AWP hotel!
Customer Service Manager, Miss Yuko said, " We do like AWP, it feels like home! This is the hotel with the best service. "

Santa Claus- Mr. Kazuo

All the hotel guests regarded grandpa Kazuo as Santa Claus who brought happiness and love to Palau. He shared his Japanese snack and lucky balloons with guests and staffs and chatted with everyone happily! Upon departure, he held the manager's hand and said: "I do like here! Hope to see you all again as I visit next time!"

Merry Christmas!

What's special for Christmas?

AWP prepared delicate chocolate in small bags hanging on the guests' doors on Christmas Eve. All the guests were surprised by the lovely present. The 12/26 concert was also admired by the guests.

